

Story About A Dog

By Tehya Fierek

One day Sandie looked out her window and she saw a dog. Sandie wondered what it would be like to have a dog. She went to the pet shop and found a dog sitting in a cage scratching the door. He was adorable. Sandie really hoped she would be allowed to buy the dog. On the way home she imagined what it would do when it arrived in her house. She asked her mum and dad if she could buy the fluffy dog. His name would be Harry and she would love him very much. They said "yes" so the next day they went to buy the dog. He sniffed her when he came out of the cage and she picked him up. Sandie took him home. That night he slept on her bed and she had all she had hoped for.

The end.
